

The fastest declining occupations in England since the start of the recession

(Data taken from Spring 2008 to Summer 2009)

Occupation	Numerical Change	% Change
Car Park attendants	-7,357	-53.3
Scientific researchers	-8,909	-48.8
Steel erectors	-6,932	-42.4
Assemblers (vehicle and metal goods)	-19,617	-39.9
Floorers and wall tillers	-18,873	-37.7
Textile process operatives	-6,442	-36.9
Metal making and treating process operatives	-7,368	-36.2
Bricklayers, masons	-39,109	-35.8
Mobile machine drivers and operators	-19,516	-34.0
Production and process engineers	-11,366	-31.7
Advertising and public relation managers	-17,852	-30.3
Veterinarians	-4,979	-29.9
Communications operatives	-11,014	-28.3
Glaziers, window and fabric fitters	-13,281	-28.3
Career adviser and vocational guidance specialists	-8,746	-27.8
Metal working machine operatives	-23,665	-27.1
Telecommunications engineers	-13,788	-26.8
Lines repairers and cable joiners	-3,793	-25.6
Midwives	-10,808	-24.6
Clergy	-12,753	-24.4

Report – Skills for Jobs: Today and Tomorrow – UKCES
Source: (2009) Labour Force Survey