

The fastest growing occupations in England since the start of the recession

(Data taken from Spring 2008 to Summer 2009)

Occupation	Numerical Change	% Change
Actors, entertainers	25,105	90.7
Pharmacy managers	4,440	79.1
Archivists and curators	5,813	78.7
Hotel porters	5,751	69.0
Pipe fitters	6,735	66.3
Routine laboratory testers	5,057	59.9
Rail transport operatives	5,064	54.8
Forestry workers	5,307	53.0
Recycling and refuse disposal managers	3,505	51.7
Conference and exhibition managers	7,386	50.5
Environmental health officers	4,788	49.5
Social science researchers	6,929	49.0
Water and sewerage plant operatives	4,086	47.9
Physicists, geologists and meteorologists	9,364	47.9
Rail construction and maintenance operatives	4,019	47.8
Rounds(wo)men and van sales persons	8,267	44.9
Aircraft pilots and flight engineers	7,318	44.7
Undertakers and mortuary assistants	4,755	43.1
Travel agents	14,242	42.0
Sports coaches, instructors and officials	20,932	41.1

Report – Skills for Jobs: Today and Tomorrow – UKCES
Source: (2009) Labour Force Survey